Mercedes Gonzales Cort of Guadalajara, Spain was educated at the Coudelaria de Alter Real and Portuguese Riding School of Equestrian Art in Portugal and at the Spanish Riding School, Vienna, Austria. She is a former Master Rider at the Andalusian School of Equestrian Arts and was photographed by Robert Vavra for his book All Those Girls in Love with Horses.

She is experienced in virtually every equestrian discipline, including dressage, sidesaddle, high school, driving, and of course the Spanish disciplines. First appointed PRE judge in Spain in 1999 by the Jefatura de Cría Caballar, 2016 was the fifth time she has graced ERAHC's arena as a judge.

She is the author of Monta Española, Normas y manejos, a comprehensive work on the traditional equestrian disciplines of Spain. She is the current President of the SideSaddle Association of Spain.

These clinics are sponsored by the Eastern Regional Andalusian Horse Club, and ERAHC members receive a 10% discount. As soon as details of clinic cost, meals, housing, stabling are available, we will send out registration flyers.
